

A Springboard for Renewal

When Spring comes to South Central I always feel a great sense of relief. It's wonderful to see more daylight, less snow, and nature "springing" to life. I wash my windows, and tidy up my house inside and out. Spring gives me a sense of renewal.

We are very lucky Region 1 is promoting a new series on just that topic, Renewal. They are bring us a workshop called, Working Together to Strengthen Recovery & Renewal; Members, Meetings, Intergroup, Region 1.

They are sending the Region 1 Chair, Beverly M to Anchorage in May, and she will be our Guest Speaker at the May 19th & 20th workshops. It will be held at the Anchorage Lutheran Church (look for the flyer for more details).

Before she gets here we need to take a survey to help provide information about our members, our meetings, and our Intergroup, so Beverly can help us find the best way to move forward in renewal and recovery. The survey should go out by mid to late April. Please complete it as quickly as possible. Thank you.

Happy Easter, Happy Passover, Happy Spring!

Joyful Recovery!

Step Four: “Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.”

“If we can share what we have learned. If we can apply it to all areas of our lives, we will have indeed performed the task for which we have been placed on this earth.” –Beyond Our Wildest Dreams. P.22

This is the true essence of program to continue sharing the OA message with all who share our compulsion. When we live the program and follow it in all our affairs, we set an example that shows others that OA works. It is more than talking about it: it is doing it.

The OA programs has three A's awareness, acceptance, and action. Our awareness begins at Step One and continues through the Steps, especially in Steps Four and Ten. Accepting our awareness comes gradually as we work the Steps. Then comes the action we need to take. For that we look to find God's will for us. Step Three is our starting point when we turn our lives and our will over to our Higher Power.

For Today, by sharing what we have found and taking action in our lives, may we continue to carry OA's message.

VOR – Corresponding Question:

“What is my primary purpose for being in this program?”

Newcomer Story

Before I came to OA I felt frightened, lost, and desperate. My memories are filled with tears, fears, and confusion. I was lost and desperate. Once I got here I was still confused, but it felt right. These are some of the things that helped to me keep coming back:

- I heard my story when other people shared.
- I knew my food was out of control, but I found out I wasn't the only one.
- Nobody was judging me.
- They helped me figure out it wasn't just food that was the problem. It was my thinking that needed to change.
- They listened when I said I felt taken advantage of, I felt abused, I felt alone, I felt sad. They said they had too, but then they reassured me OA gave them a better life.
- Then they taught me there was a solution if I would just stick around, get a sponsor, work the Steps, come to meetings, and surrender.

It has truly saved my life, given me back my joy, and helped strengthen my relationships with my friends and family. Ever grateful - Anonymous

Writing and Sharing your Recovery

Please send your Northern Lights articles to snowmagnolias@yahoo.com. The next deadline is May 10, 2017. Write about any topic of your choosing, and we especially would like to hear your newcomer story. Please send a Word document with minimal formatting. (As in our meetings, the opinions shared by individual OA members do not necessarily reflect OA as a whole.)

It's Time to Update Your Meeting Information..

Meeting Secretaries please correct the contact information, time and location for your meeting. Thank you! Email bish.aaron@gmail.com

Region One Convention

This year's Region One Convention is scheduled for October 13-15 2017, just a hop, skip and a jump (or red-eye flight) away, in Seattle WA. <http://www.oaregion1.org/region-1-convention.html>

My Spiritual Barometer

I've been in the OA program since July 1990, and I've heard many times that when we are slipping "the food is the last to go." This is both true and not true in my program. For me, the veggies are the first to go, then comes the full-blown bingeing.

Prior to coming to OA, I thought the only two food groups were Fat and Sugar. I've found in recovery that it works best for me to choose a serving from each of the standard food groups at each meal. Although my spirituality is the most important part of my program, the emotional and physical have to be included as well, and vegetables are my key to it all!

When I don't want to eat my vegetables, something is wrong with my spiritual condition. There is usually a kicking, screaming kid in me who is saying, "I will not accept life on life's terms! I will not eat my vegetables!"

After the vegetables go, the next thing I know I'm missing a meeting (or two) and then adding a snack (or two or three) and then I'm bingeing. I've relapsed on three separate occasions since coming to OA, and each time has been progressively worse. During the last relapse I felt like I could have killed myself. Now I realize that's exactly what I'm doing with each compulsive bite.

I've been abstinent now for several months, and things are looking up already. My veggies are up to fifty percent and climbing. The fog is lifting and visibility is much improved. Thanks to a loving HP, a wonderful sponsor, and my veggies, I'm working an abstinent program. – Louisiana, USA

So Rewarding

Newcomers help me remember the desperation that got me into OA. Newcomers remind me how powerful this disease is and how powerless I am over food. When a newcomer is at a meeting, I share my recovery, strength, and hope and stay in the solution. When I take on a newcomer as a sponsee, it is so rewarding. My recovery is boosted by working with sponsees, because I have to be rigorously honest with myself, my own sponsor, and God.

I work this program daily by using the Tools and practicing the Principles. It is humbling to be reminded that our weaknesses, not our strengths, bind us together. To the newcomer, I want to say: This program works; it has saved my life—I never thought I would have sanity, yet I am a miracle. I live a happy, joyous, and free life. My food obsession, sugar addiction, bingeing, and compulsive overeating have been lifted for today. This program is a true gift and works if you work it. Please keep coming back!

Tradition Four: Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or OA as a whole.

Tradition four gives OA groups the freedom to do what works best for them. Each group chooses its own meeting place and time, format and practices. Every OA group makes its own decisions – and mistakes – without interference from any governing body other than its own group conscience. (OA 12 and 12, p 137)

All of us need the balance implicit in the principle of autonomy to be the unique OA groups and individuals we were meant to be. Tradition four challenges us as individuals, as OA groups, and as a Fellowship to strike a healthy balance between our responsibility for ourselves and our responsibility to each other, while we grow together as companions in recovery. (OA 12 and 12, p. 144)
