May 2017 – Chair Report

Please join us May 19, and May 20, for the Working Together to Strengthen Recovery & Renewal Workshops.

Friday, May 19, 6-8 pm*

Amazing Grace Lutheran Church, 10955 Elmore Road - Nurturing Your Program & Nurturing the Newcomer.

*We need people for setup - please come at 5-5:30 to help

Saturday, May 20, 9-4:30, Anchorage Lutheran Church, 1420 N Street - Renewal Process; Creating Positive Actions, Sponsorship; Recovering Together - What Works.

There will be no additional Intergroup meetings until September 16, 12-1:30 at the Oasis. Email if you or your meeting has questions or support needs during the summer.

Have a lovely summer, but remember our disease doesn't take a break. You can have a wonderful life if you keep going to meetings, working the Steps, calling your Sponsor, talking to your sponsees, praying, meditating and surrendering your fears and concerns to your higher power. I'll be at the workshop and at the meetings all summer; I hope to see you there.

In Service - Jody W

Newcomers Are Welcome Here!

The only requirement for OA membership is a desire to stop eating compulsively. OA does not weigh members, sign them up, monitor their eating habits or keep tabs on them in any way. The important thing is to keep coming back and work the program with others. In Overeaters Anonymous, you'll find members who are extremely overweight, even morbidly obese; moderately overweight; average weight; underweight; still maintaining periodic control over their eating behavior; or totally unable to control their compulsive eating. OA members experience many different patterns of food behaviors. These "symptoms" are as varied as our membership. Our symptoms may vary, but we share a common bond: we are powerless over food and our lives are unmanageable. This common problem has led those in OA to seek and find a common solution in the Twelve Steps, the Twelve Traditions and nine tools of Overeaters Anonymous. Keep coming back!

Intergroup Seeks Feedback on Possible Oasis Improvements

We are beginning a discussion about making improvements to the Oasis. Please let us know if different furniture, paint and layout would be of value to you and your meetings.

??? Where is the Literature Money???

Literature is being purchased but we do not seem to be receiving the corresponding income, at least not in the literature account. Please put your literature money into the literature Cash Box at the Oasis. It is now on the literature shelf. We want to be able keep the literature shelves stocked. Thank you!

It's Time to Update Your Meeting Information...

Meeting Secretaries please correct the contact information, time and location for your meeting. Thank you!

Family Circus Inspires Me

I love the Family Circus. I totally relate to the excuses that the kids in this comic strip give for not doing something what they've been asked to do. I'm feeling a little "broccoli" this morning — don't want to pray and meditate, read or write — and have a lot of really good excuses for why I don't need to just for today. But the truth is that things that are "good for me" really are good for me. My eye doctor tells me that dark green veggies such as broccoli are good for my eyes. My sponsors tell me that having a good program routine is essential to recovery. Some days I'm an adult and do what's in my best interest; some days I'm a 7 year old and I don't want to be a broccoli. It's up to me — exercise my free will or accept the will of my HP. — Anonymous, Anchorage

Step 5 Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

Step five starts with our Higher Power. Most of us find that without the help of a Power greater than ourselves we are incapable of complete honesty about the mistakes we have made. It is human nature to cling to the illusion that we have done no wrong, and through years of compulsive eating we have become experts at rationalization. Now, with God's help, we leave rationalization behind and begin to practice integrity... We willingly open our hearts so that a life-changing power can come in and heal us. As in our meetings, the opinions shared by individual OA members in our newsletter do not necessarily reflect OA as a whole.

What Happens When I Find the Strength to be Still and Accept Where I am Today?

Anxiety subsides - Serenity rises

Restlessness subsides - I become aware of beauty in my present surroundings.

I stop blaming – I find gratitude for the people in my life

I stop judging others – I recognize my part in conflicts

I stop judging myself – I can break the loop of my negative self-talk

I break the tendency to isolate – I can sometimes admit the need for and reach out for help

I break through the freeze of despair – I feel energized to participate in joyful healthy activities

Be still and know that I am God (and you are not, and neither am I!) – Anonymous, Anchorage

7th Tradition Carries the Message

Your donation keeps our bookstore, intergroup office, web site, OA retreats, and workshops going, as well as supporting Region 1 and WSO. Thank you for giving generously!

Meetings Feedback: Please let Intergroup know at each meeting if you have needs or concerns that we might help with.
